

Eyes on an expressive exhibition

VISITORS to a Horsham opticians have the chance to check their eyesight out on some expressive and bold art.

Claire Phillips, from Partridge Green, is showing her work above CB Dixey opticians in West Street until Saturday May 7.

The 41 year old artist is a recent first class honours graduate in fine art from Northbrook College in Worthing.

Claire's work which includes paintings and some sculpture is for sale.

Claire said: "I paint mainly people and the odd animal.

"My work is expressive with bold colours."

● Left, one of the sculptures on show. C5160422.

● Right, Claire Phillips' The Beekeeper being viewed at CB Dixey optician in Horsham's West Street. C5160431.

